Govt to Invest $13b more in BharatNet: Vaishnav

IT min says this will aid in expanding the footprint of rural connectivity scheme to every village in the country

Our Bureau

New Delhi: The government will invest a total of $13 billion (roughly ₹1 lakh crore) in BharatNet over the next five years to expand the footprint of the rural internet connectivity scheme to every village, union minister for electronics and information technology Ashwini Vaishnav said...

Technology, Vaishnav said should not be cornered by a few companies involving societies like Reliance, Jio, etc.
