Two gangrapes rock Buldhana, Bhandara

Soumitra.Bose@timesgroup.com

Nagpur: Two instances of alleged gangrape rocked Buldhana and Bhandara districts in Maharashtra in the past 24 hours. In Buldhana, eight people were booked for allegedly raping a married woman, while an offence was registered against 10 people in Bhandara following a rape complaint by a 17-year-old girl.

The married woman, who is in her mid-thirties, had gone on a trip to Buldhana on Thursday with a male relative. She was clicking selfies with him at the spot when eight men allegedly accosted the duo, held them at knifepoint, and robbed the man of Rs 45,000, besides raping the woman. The attackers also thrashed the man and left him severely injured. Police have so far arrested five of the eight accused.

Meanwhile, in Bhandara, a 17-year-old girl left her home on June 26 to meet her boyfriend in Mumbai. On June 27, at a bus stop, she was befriended by a man who took her to a friend's place where four persons allegedly raped her. The man again summoned her the next day to another friend's place, where two men gangraped her for the second time. Police rescued the minor on July 10 from Mumbai. During the detailed questioning she revealed all of this. Police have registered an offence of rape against the four persons and her boyfriend in Mumbai.
